

Vote YES!

The Fiscally Responsible Solution

- Just as you would never invest significant dollars into a car repair when the car is at the end of its usefulness, it just is not fiscally responsible to make huge investments into deteriorating school buildings that will soon need to be replaced anyway.
- The bond only costs less than $8/month (per $100k home value).
- Our schools will still have one of the lowest tax rates in the country.

Want to know more?

Join us at www.WeAreRevere.com and www.facebook.com/WeAreRevere

Paid for by Families and Community Together for Schools, Karen Smik, Treasurer, 3832 Faith Lane, Richfield, OH 44286